Your notification of change on 26.12.2025

Change in earned income for your YEL insurance

We have confirmed your earned income for your insurance under the Self-employed Persons' Pensions Act (YEL) as from 01.01.2026 to be 14326.36 EUR a year (at the 2026 wage coefficient of 1.712). The earned income is adjusted annually at the beginning of January using a wage coefficient.

Confirmed income under YEL must be such that it corresponds to the wages or salary that would reasonably be paid if a person with similar skills and knowledge was hired to perform the self-employed activities, or compensation that can otherwise be considered to correspond on average to such work. YEL income is confirmed based on an overall assessment. When confirming the amount of earned income, the aforementioned wages or salary and compensation are considered to be the median pay of private-sector, full-time workers in the sector, in addition to which the amount of the self-employed person's other work input, the scope of their self-employed activities, their skills and knowledge, and information describing the value of their work input are taken into account. (YEL, Section 112 § 1–2 subsections).

The amount of confirmed income can be adjusted if the factors affecting it change substantially. However, confirmed income cannot be changed retroactively. (YEL, Section 112 a, subsections 1 and 4).

You have applied to have your YEL income changed to EUR 14000.00. In your application, you entered Beauty treatment activities as the main sector of your entrepreneurial activities. The net sales of your entrepreneurial activities this year is EUR 12192.00, calculated on the basis of the three-month net sales reported by you.

In your sector, the median salary of employees is EUR 30388.19, and the median net sales of companies is EUR 36813.23. Taking into account the median salary of your sector and the annual net sales of your entrepreneurial activities, the recommended YEL income level is EUR 12192.00. However, your YEL confirmed income cannot be lower than EUR 9208.43 and higher than EUR 15850.00. These figures concerning your sector and the recommended YEL income are reported at the 2025 level.

When confirming the amount of your earned income, we have also taken into account the amount and value of your work input as well as information describing the scope of your self-employed activities as follows:

- You work for an average of 35 hours per week.
- No one else works in your entrepreneurial activities besides you.

The earned income in your application is in line with the recommended YEL confirmed income and corresponds to your work input as a self-employed person.

Your contribution is determined according to the principles confirmed by the Ministry of Social Affairs and Health. Once you have received a decision on your new YEL income, you will see your new YEL contribution in Varma Online Service.

If you have accident insurance for the self-employed or belong to the Entrepreneur Fund, remember to also inform them of the change in your YEL income.
